OAKLAND RAIDERS TICKET INFORMATION

The Oakland Football Marketing Association (OFMA) is handling the sale of Personal Seat Licenses (PSLs), Luxury Suites, Club Seats and other seat rights to Oakland Raiders games at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum.

For information on Oakland Raiders tickets, contact the Oakland Football Marketing Association at 888-44RAIDERS. The OFMA is located at 7901 Oakport Rd., Ste. 4300, Oakland, CA 94621

THE OAKLAND RAIDERS FACILITY

The Oakland Raiders permanent facility sits on approximately 13 acres of land in the Harbor Bay Business and Research Park in Alameda, located just north of the Oakland International Airport and about one mile from the team's old training facility on Doolittle Drive in Oakland.

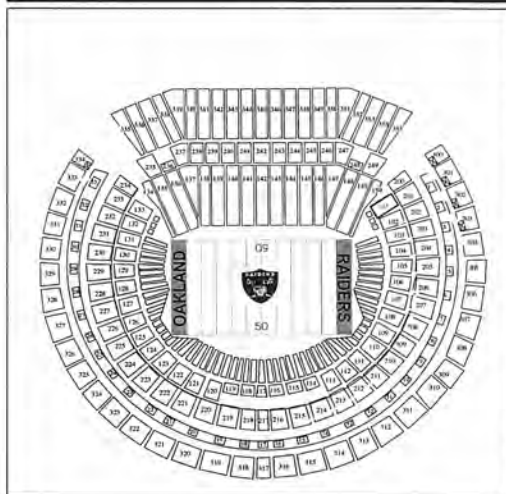

The Raiders facility is 100,000 square feet and houses the team's executive and administrative offices as well as coaches offices, player meeting rooms, locker room, training facility, television and radio studios and media center.

Three full-sized grass practice fields reside on the property.

In 1997, improvements and renovations were made at the facility to suit the team's present and future needs. The Silver and Black moved business operations into the facility in mid June, 1996.

OAKLAND-ALAMEDA COUNTY COLISEUM

Oakland Raiders home games are played at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum. The Coliseum opened on September 18, 1966 with the Raiders hosting the Kansas City Chiefs.

The Coliseum, located three miles from Oakland International Airport, was built by the City of Oakland and the County of Alameda.

The all-time Coliseum record for football attendance is 61,656 fans on November 4, 1996, when the Raiders hosted the Denver Broncos in a Monday Night Football contest.

The Coliseum underwent major renovation that began during the Raiders 1995 season. Capacity at the remodeled Coliseum is now 63,263 with added luxury suites, club levels, two new club lounges, new locker rooms, remodeled press box, new video scoreboards and additional amenities.

The Coliseum playing surface is natural grass. Nearly 100 million people have passed through the turnstiles of the Coliseum, which rests on 120 acres.

THE GREATNESS OF THE RAIDERS

The Raiders, who began play in the American Football League in 1960, enter their 39th year of professional football competition, including the last 28 as a member of the National Football League.

For a span stretching over four decades—the 1960s, '70s, '80s and now the '90s—the Raiders have been the most dominant team in major professional sports since Al Davis first pledged in 1963 to build the finest organization in pro sports.

The Green Bay Packers were the NFL team of the '60s, the Pittsburgh Steelers the team of the '70s, the San Francisco 49ers the team of the '80s. But only one team was dominant throughout those three memorable decades and has continued its tradition of greatness into the '90s.

The Raiders, winners of three World Championships of Professional Football, are the only team to have been in Super Bowls in the '60s, the '70s and the '80s. The Raiders are one of only two original American Football League teams to have won a Super Bowl since 1969 and have already done so three times. The Raiders are the only AFC team to have won two Super Bowls since 1980. The Raiders are the only AFC team to have won Super Bowls under more than one head coach.

Since 1963, when Al Davis first took over the failing Oakland franchise that had struggled to win only nine of 42 league games in the initial three seasons of the new American Football League, and pledged to build the finest organization in sports, the Raiders have totally dominated professional football in terms of consistent victory.

During that memorable 35-year span in Oakland and Los Angeles, the Raiders won 323 league games, tied 11 and lost only 188. The Raiders continue to stand alone atop the NFL for this period with their winning percentage of .632.

Commitment to Excellence has never been an idle phrase to those who have proudly represented the Raider organization during the '60s, '70s, '80s and now the '90s.

Equally impressive as their domination of pro football is the Raiders' long reign as the most successful organization in the major professional sports world for four decades:

TOP PROFESSIONAL SPORTS RECORDS
1963-1997
Professional Sport	Top Team	Winning Percentage
1. Football	OAKLAND RAIDERS	.632
2. Hockey	Montreal Canadiens	.631
3. Basketball	Los Angeles Lakers	.628
4. Baseball	Baltimore Orioles	.548

The Raiders have continually defied the odds to maintain their unparalleled level of excellence as professional sports' winningest team for over 30 years.

Since 1967, when the Raiders won the AFL Championship and went to the Super Bowl in their very first season in the playoffs, the Silver and Black has fought its way into the playoffs 18 times, played in 12 Championship games, won or shared 14 Division Championships, won the American Football League Championship, three American Football Conference Championships and three World Championships of Professional Football.

Eight of the great players who proudly wore Silver and Black, as well as owner-leader Al Davis, have already been enshrined in the Professional Football Hall of Fame. Five different Raider head coaches have already been selected as Pro Football Coach-of-the-Year.

In 1970, as the Raiders began their second decade of play, the merger between the AFL and NFL became a reality on the field. In the 1970-1997 period of interconference play, the Raiders have compiled a remarkable 66-36-1 record against present NFC rivals.

Another innovation came to professional football in 1970—Monday Night Football. The Raiders' total domination of this prime-time ABC television series has seen the Silver and Black build an incredible 33-16-1 record in Monday night play. In the 28 years of this series, the Raiders are 13-2-0 in Monday Night Football games at home.

For their four decades—the '60s, '70s, '80s and '90s—the Raiders have had the greatest players, the greatest coaches, the greatest plays and participated in the greatest games in the annals of professional sports.

Challengers to Raider domination of professional football arise in the 1990s as they have in the '60s, the '70s and the '80s. The Raider organization will continue to meet these challenges. The past has been glorious, but THE GREATNESS OF THE RAIDERS IS IN ITS FUTURE.

RAIDERS OWNERS

AL DAVIS

A total commitment to excellence has marked the three-time World Champion Raiders monumental rise during the last 35 years to the very top of the professional sports world. During these decades of destiny the Raiders battled their way to the best record in major professional sports.

In these memorable 35 years, the Raiders have had 26 winning seasons, including 16 in a row from 1965 through the 1980 World Championship season.

Davis' four-decade professional football story, from assistant coach of the Chargers, to head coach and general manager of the Raiders, to Commissioner of the American Football League and finally to principal owner and president of the general partner of pro sports' winningest team—the Oakland Raiders—is a standard that no one in the history of professional sports can match for winning and excellence.

In April, 1966, the then 36-year old Davis, head coach and general manager of the Raiders, became Commissioner of the American Football League. This was a post he accepted reluctantly, for first and foremost, Al Davis was a football coach, and knew that assuming the Commissionership would in all probability mean an end to his coaching career.

But AFL owners, in their battle with the rival National Football League, prevailed on Davis to accept the position. He was described by AFL president Ralph Wilson as "a coaching genius and astute administrator."

Just eight weeks later, when pro football's two major leagues put an end to their six year war, Davis was acclaimed nationally as the driving force who brought the leagues to merge. In 1969, he was once again a prime force in the dramatic realignment of professional football when two 13-team conferences—the AFC and NFC—were formed for 1970.

As a member of the NFL Management Council's Executive Committee, Davis has been a major factor in achieving collective bargaining agreements with the players.

Al Davis first came to the Raiders in January, 1963, dedicated to rescuing the faltering Oakland franchise and building the finest organization in professional sports. Just 33, Davis was the youngest man in pro football to hold the demanding dual positions of head coach and general manager.

But Davis already possessed 14 years coaching experience. He had been tabbed a "young coaching genius" by Sports Illustrated and "the most inventive mind in the country" by Scholastic Coach magazine.

The Raiders—"picked to finish dead last"—thundered to a 10-4 record and just missed the Division Championship. In 1963, Davis was named Pro Football Coach of the Year.

Perhaps his most singular honor is having made a record eight presentations of inductees to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

The eight great enshrinees to have selected Al Davis to make the presentation speeches on their behalf are Lance Alworth, Jim Otto, George Blanda, Willie Brown, Gene Upshaw, Fred Biletnikoff, Art Shell and Ted Hendricks.

Davis became enshrined on August 1, 1992 when he was presented for induction into the Hall of Fame by the great former Raiders head coach, and now leading television football analyst, John Madden.

In May of 1991, Al Davis became the very first recipient of the NFL Players Association's Retired Players Award of Excellence "for his contributions to the men who played the game."

Born July 4, 1929, Al Davis was raised in Brockton, Massachusetts, and moved at an early age to Brooklyn, New York. He attended Wittenberg College and Syracuse University, earning a degree in English while participating in football, basketball and baseball.

Al Davis recently received a Letterman of Distinction Award from Syracuse University.

In March of 1998, Davis was inducted into the NFL Alumni's "Order of the Leather Helmet," presented annually to "individuals who have made significant contributions to the game of professional football."

In 1950, Davis was named line coach at Adelphi College in New York. He then went into the Army, being assigned as head football coach at Ft. Belvoir, Virginia. There he molded a national power service team and capped one season by defeating the University of Maryland, National Collegiate Champions, in a squad game.

Davis next served on the staff of the NFL's Baltimore Colts in 1954, at age 24, concentrating on player personnel work. During 1955-56, he was line coach and chief recruiter at The Citadel. He then spent three years at the University of Southern California as line coach.

From there it was on to meet the challenges with the Raiders of Oakland in 1963.

SUPER BOWL RINGS

The Raiders World Championship rings—awarded to players, coaches, staff and owners after the dominating victories in Super Bowl XI, Super Bowl XV and Super Bowl XVIII—are renowned as the most memorable pieces of championship team jewelry ever produced.

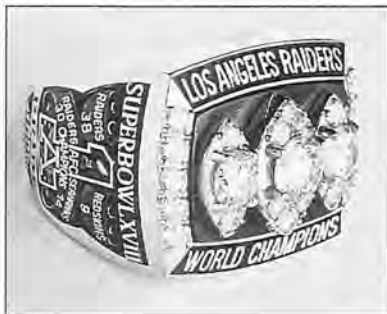

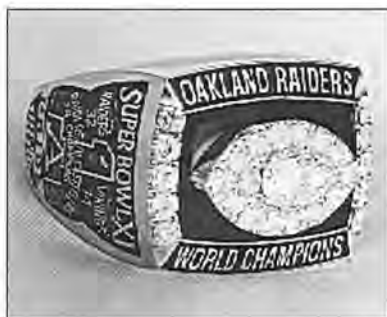

The rings were produced by Lenox Awards of St. Charles, Illinois, whose staff developed creative concepts incorporating the explicit guidelines established by the Raiders—white gold, a raised football-shaped crest of diamonds on a black surface and a design based on "massive excellence" that would recognize these crowning achievements by the Raider organization.

The Super Bowl XVIII ring design features three large diamonds to represent the three World Championships won within eight years, each centered in a football-shaped crest plus an additional 20 five-point diamonds.

The Super Bowl XV ring design, featuring two large center diamonds to symbolize the two World Championships won within five years, and 33 five-point diamonds on the ring face, was developed by Raider Managing General Partner Al Davis, Head Coach Tom Flores, Executive Assistant Al LoCasale and Lenox Awards President Tom Brasher.

RAIDERS COACHES

JON GRUDEN HEAD COACH

Jon Gruden—a veteran of seven years of NFL coaching experience and six at the college level—was named on Thursday, January 22, 1998 as head coach of the Oakland Raiders. Gruden spent the last three seasons as offensive coordinator for the Philadelphia Eagles.

"I like Jon's passion, his resiliency," said Oakland Raiders owner Al Davis. "I've been impressed with Jon for some time and he got high accolades from everyone that I talked to. I got the feeling that he has something that we need."

Gruden was the NFL's youngest offensive coordinator at age 31 when he was hired by Eagles head coach Ray Rhodes in 1995. The Eagles had a 26-21-1 record during his tour of duty, including playoff appearances after both the 1995 and 1996 campaigns in the highly competitive NFC Eastern Division.

"I'm excited to be here," said Gruden who, as a seven-year NFL assistant saw his teams qualify for the playoffs five times. "I understand the expectations and commitment of this franchise and look forward to getting started."

In 1997, the Eagles ranked second in passing, fifth in rushing and third in total offense in the NFC. In 1996, they led the NFC in passing, were second in rushing and led the conference in total offense. In Gruden's first season as an NFL offensive coordinator in 1995, the Eagles finished fourth in the entire league in rushing.

Gruden, 34, becomes the youngest head coach presently employed in the NFL and the third-youngest field general in the 38-year history of the Silver and Black. Raiders owner Al Davis was 33 when he was named head coach and general manager of the Silver and Black in 1963 while John Madden was 32 when he was promoted to the head post in 1969.

Before joining Philadelphia, Gruden worked for three seasons with the Green Bay Packers. He served as an offensive assistant to Packers head coach Mike Holmgren in 1992, then spent the 1993 and 1994 seasons as Green Bay's receivers coach. The Packers were 27-21 for those three seasons and were in the playoffs in two of those years. Gruden spent the 1991 football season in the college ranks as wide receivers coach at the University of Pittsburgh under head coach Paul Hackett.

Gruden was an offensive assistant to head coach George Seifert with the San Francisco 49ers in 1990, working closely with offensive coordinator Mike Holmgren. The 49ers were an NFL-best 14-2, finally losing in the NFC Championship Game.

In his first four seasons in the coaching profession—1986-1989—Gruden served assistantships at the University of Tennessee in 1986 and 1987 as the Volunteers totaled 17-7-1 and won against Big Ten opponents in the Liberty Bowl and Peach Bowl. In 1988, he was passing game coordinator at Southeast Missouri State and in 1989 coached wide receivers at the University of Pacific.

Born August 17, 1963 in Sandusky, Ohio, Gruden was a three-year letterman at quarterback at the University of Dayton, graduating in 1985 with a degree in communications. Dayton had a 24-7 record in Gruden's three varsity seasons there.

Gruden and his wife Cindy—a former University of Tennessee cheerleader—have two sons, Jon II, 4, and Michael, 1.

Gruden's father, Jim, is a regional scout for the San Francisco 49ers and formerly served as an assistant coach under John McKay with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. His brother, Jay, played in the Arena Football League and currently serves as the youngest head coach in that league with the Orlando Predators.

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT JON GRUDEN

RAIDERS WIDE RECEIVER TIM BROWN

"I have talked to some of the players on the Eagles and they say he is an great offensive guy. They say that there is no better coach in the league at getting you out of any situation. As a player I will have no problem adjusting to him."

RAIDERS RUNNING BACK NAPOLEON KAUFMAN

"He is a young guy who has coached in some great systems with some great coaches. What we need to do now is execute and win some games for the organization and the fans."

RAIDERS GUARD STEVE WISNIEWSKI

"It's going to be real fun next season having a young enthusiastic coach coming in here. He will have the opportunity to give us a fresh perspective."

PHILADELPHIA EAGLES HEAD COACH RAY RHODES

"I'm happy for Jon. He's worked extremely hard since he got into the coaching business, preparing himself for an opportunity like this. I said when he joined me here in Philadelphia that Jon is one of the bright young minds in the game, that he's a workaholic....and none of that has changed. He's ready for the challenge and I wish him well."

PHILADELPHIA EAGLES WIDE RECEIVER IRVING FRYAR

"I'm sorry to see him go, but he's ready for this opportunity and he's got to jump at it. He's a good man, a great coach, a young guy with a lot of great things ahead of him. The downside to this whole thing, though, is that some day we're going to have to play against him."

BILL CALLAHAN

Offensive Coordinator/Tight Ends

Bill Callahan is in his first season as offensive coordinator for the Raiders. Callahan, 42, previously served as the offensive line coach for the Philadelphia Eagles from 1995-97, where he worked on the same staff as new Raiders Head Coach Jon Gruden. In both 1995 and 1996, Callahan's unit helped the Eagles rank second in the NFC in rushing. From 1990-94, Callahan worked in the same capacity with the University of Wisconsin when Badger linemen earned nine first team All-Big Ten honors. In 1989, he was the offensive coordinator at the University of Southern Illinois where his offensive unit set 18 school records. Prior to joining Southern Illinois, Callahan served a two year stint, 1987-88, as offensive line coach at Northern Arizona. His coaching career began in 1980 as a graduate assistant at the University of Illinois before being promoted to full time assistant in 1981, coaching a variety of different positions including tight ends, offensive line, quarterbacks and special teams through 1986. The Chicago, Illinois native was a three-year starter at quarterback at Illinois Benedictine, where he earned NAIA honorable mention All-America honors in his final two seasons. The Callahan family includes wife Valerie and their four children—Brian, Daniel, Cathryn and Jaclyn.

WILLIE SHAW

Defensive Coordinator

Willie Shaw begins his first season with the Raiders after serving as defensive backs coach with the New Orleans Saints in 1997. With Shaw at the helm of the secondary on Mike Ditka's New Orleans staff last season, the Saints ranked sixth in the NFL in pass defense and sixth in overall defense. Shaw was the defensive coordinator for the St. Louis Rams from 1995-96. Under Shaw's guidance, the Rams tied a club record in 1995 with five defensive touchdowns scored. In 1994, he coached the defensive backs for the AFC Champion San Diego Chargers. From 1992-93 he handled the defensive backs for the Minnesota Vikings staff. Shaw originally entered the NFL coaching ranks as an assistant for the Detroit Lions in 1985. From 1985-87 he handled the secondary while moving to linebackers in 1988. Between his first and second tour in the NFL, Shaw began his second term with Stanford, serving as defensive coordinator from 1989-91 under head coach Denny Green. Shaw's 17 years of collegiate coaching began in 1970 as an assistant at San Diego City College from 1970-73. He then served his first term at Stanford as an assistant coach from 1974-76. Shaw also was an assistant at Long Beach State from 1977-78, the University of Oregon in 1979 and at Arizona State from 1980-84. The Glenmora, Louisiana native who was raised in San Diego was an All-America cornerback at the University of New Mexico where he played from 1966-68. Shaw and his wife Gay have three children—Tawnya, Eric and David, who is also a member of the Raiders coaching staff.

DAVE ADOLPH

Linebackers

Dave Adolph, a veteran of 35 years of coaching, including 19 seasons in the National Football League, is in his second season with the Raiders as linebackers coach after two seasons (1995-96) as defensive coordinator for the San Diego Chargers. Adolph spent the 1992-94 seasons as defensive coordinator for the Kansas City Chiefs. Prior to that stint—which saw the Chiefs make the playoffs each season—Adolph was defensive coordinator for the Raiders from 1989-91—during which time the Silver and Black reached the postseason in two of those seasons and missed by only one game in the third. The Raiders were AFC West champions in 1990, qualified as a wild card in 1991 and just missed the postseason in 1989. Adolph served two stints as defensive coordinator for the Cleveland Browns—from 1979-84 and 1986-88—and served in the same capacity for the Chargers in 1985. He started his coaching career in 1963 at the University of Akron—his alma mater. Adolph was an All-Conference guard and linebacker at Akron as a senior while attending the school from 1959-62. He also served as an assistant at Ohio State under legendary coach Woody Hayes, and at Illinois, Kentucky and Connecticut. The Adolph family includes wife Betty and five children.

FRED BILETNIKOFF

Wide Receivers

Fred Biletnikoff, in his 24th year with the Raiders, returns for his eighth season as receivers coach. He coached receivers for the Silver and Black last season after spending the 1995-96 seasons in charge of quality control. The 55-year old Biletnikoff had spent the previous six years (1989-94) coaching Raiders wide receivers. The Pro Football Hall of Famer played 14 seasons for the Raiders—from 1965-78. Biletnikoff coached wide receivers for Calgary of the Canadian Football League from 1987-88. He coached for two United States Football League teams—the Arizona Wranglers in 1986 and the Oakland Invaders in 1985. He also coached at Diablo Valley Junior College in 1984, Palomar Junior College in 1983, Orange Glen High School in 1982, and with Montreal of the CFL in 1980. He played in 190 games for the Raiders and was Most Valuable Player in Super Bowl XI. The Erie, Pennsylvania native was the Raiders all-time leading receiver (589 catches) until last season, when his pupil, Tim Brown, broke the mark. Biletnikoff still holds Raider records in receiving yards and receiving TDs. He played in three AFL and five AFC title games and in Super Bowls II and XI. Biletnikoff played in two AFL All-Star games and four Pro Bowls after joining the Raiders as a 1965 second round draft choice from Florida State. His family includes wife Angela and five children.

CHUCK BRESNAHAN

Defensive Backs

Chuck Bresnahan enters his first season with the Raiders after serving as linebackers coach with the Indianapolis Colts the past two seasons. Prior to his service in Indianapolis, Bresnahan served in the same capacity from 1994-95 with the Cleveland Browns. Before joining the NFL ranks, Bresnahan, 37, was the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at the University of Maine from 1992-93. From 1988-91 the Massachusetts native was an assistant at Georgia Tech, handling tight ends in his first season, then moving to inside linebackers for the final three seasons. During his time at Georgia Tech the school captured a co-National Championship in 1990. Before joining the coaching ranks as a graduate assistant in 1983 for the Midshipmen, Bresnahan was a three-year letterman at the Naval Academy where he helped claim three Commander-in-Chief trophies. From 1983-87, Bresnahan was a commissioned officer in the United States Navy at the Adak, Alaska Naval Air Station where he served as a supply and physical fitness officer. He returned to the Naval Academy to coach the wide receivers/tight ends and special teams from 1986-87. Bresnahan's father was a coaching veteran of 17 years in the NFL. The Bresnahan family includes wife Erin and four daughters—Megan, Caitun, Caroline and Danielle.

WILLIE BROWN

Squad Development

Pro Football Hall of Famer Willie Brown, in his 26th year with the Raiders, is in his fourth season as Director of Squad Development. He served as secondary coach for the Raiders from 1979-88, during which the team won two World Championships of Professional Football in Super Bowls XV and XVIII. He also coached the secondary in 1997 while also serving as Director of Squad Development. Brown, 57, was an assistant at Long Beach State before taking over as head coach upon George Allen's death in 1991. In 1994 he was head coach at Los Angeles Jordan High. Brown earned his master's degree in Education at Long Beach State. He starred for the Raiders from 1967-78, beginning his pro career as a free agent with Houston. He spent 1963-66 with Denver before being traded to the Raiders. He played in 205 games and was chosen for three AFL All Star Games and four NFL Pro Bowls. He shares the Raider career interceptions record with 39, holds the Super Bowl record for the longest interception with a 75-yard TD return in Super Bowl XI and is the only player to have intercepted at least one pass in 16 straight seasons. He intercepted 54 passes in his pro career and was selected to the AFL-NFL 25-year All-Star team. Brown starred at Grambling from 1959-62 and was inducted into the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame in 1992 as well as the Grambling State University and Southwestern Athletic Conference Halls of Fame. The Yazoo, Mississippi native was also inducted into the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame. The Brown family includes wife Yvonne, two daughters and one son.

FRANK GANSZ, JR.

Special Teams

Frank Gansz Jr. comes to the Raiders after spending the past five seasons as an assistant on former Raiders assistant Kim Helton's University of Houston staff. Gansz doubled as tight ends coach from 1993-97 while also heading up the special teams unit for the Cougars. His kickoff return squad set a school record for highest return average, ranked among the top units in the nation and helped the Cougars to a Conference title and Bowl appearance in 1996. In 1992, Gansz was special teams coach for the New York-New Jersey Knights of the World League, where his kickoff and punt return teams led the league in those respective categories. Before joining the Knights, Gansz spent two seasons (1990-91) as tight ends and special teams coach at Army. Gansz began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Kansas in 1987 before joining the University of Pittsburgh staff as secondary coach in 1988. He then coached the Pitt offensive line in 1989. Gansz lettered as a defensive back for the football team at the Citadel where he also was a member of the school's Dean's List. Gansz's father, Frank Sr., is a 21-year National Football League coaching veteran and former head coach of the Kansas City Chiefs who currently serves as an assistant handling special teams for the St. Louis Rams.

GARRETT GIEMONT

Strength & Conditioning

Garrett Giemont is in his fourth season with the Raiders heading up the Silver and Black's strength and conditioning programs during both the league season as well as the offseason. Prior to joining the Raiders, Giemont spent four years as Physical Development Coordinator in Major League Baseball with the Chicago Cubs. In his capacity with the Cubs, Giemont oversaw the strength and conditioning programs for the baseball team's major league as well as their minor league operations. The Fullerton, California native served as strength and conditioning coach for the Los Angeles Rams from 1990-91. Before being promoted to head of the strength and conditioning program by then-head coach John Robinson, Giemont was the strength and conditioning trainer for the Rams from 1983-89. As the Rams strength trainer, Giemont worked with injured players in their rehabilitation programs. In addition, Giemont oversaw the team's weight training program and offseason conditioning workouts. Giemont began working with the Rams in 1970 in a part-time capacity and was hired full-time in 1978. From then until 1982, he served as assistant trainer and was promoted to strength and conditioning trainer in 1983. Giemont attended Fullerton High School, then went to Fullerton College while also beginning his work with the Rams.

ROBERT JENKINS

Offensive Assistant

Robert Jenkins began as an offensive assistant last year after retiring as an active NFL player with the Silver and Black in August, 1997. Jenkins played 12 seasons in the National Football League—the last four of his pro career with the Raiders as an offensive tackle. Jenkins spent his first eight pro seasons with the Los Angeles Rams. Jenkins, 34, was the Rams sixth round selection in the 1986 NFL draft following a stellar career at UCLA, where he was a two-year starter on the offensive line. While at UCLA, Jenkins was the co-winner of the Don Brown award for most improved player as a senior. Jenkins began his collegiate career at Chabot Junior College in Hayward, California, where he was a two-time All Golden Gate Conference pick. The San Francisco, California native was an All-League selection in football as a two-way lineman, playing defensive end and tackle and offensive guard and tackle at Dublin High School in Dublin, California. He was also an All-League selection in track and field as a shot putter and in the discus. The Jenkins family includes wife Pamela and two daughters.

DON MARTIN

Quality Control, Defense

Don Martin begins his first season on the Raiders coaching staff after 16 seasons at Yale University. Martin coached the wide receivers at his alma mater and helped produce numerous 40 catch receivers during his tenure at the Ivy League school. He was a member of the Philadelphia Eagles coaching staff as part of the NFL's Minority Coaches Fellowship Program in 1994. He also served an NFL Minority Coaches Fellowship with the Raiders during the 1990 training camp. Martin played football and was a member of the track team at Yale and was billed the fastest man to play football at the university during his collegiate years. In track, Martin held records in the 200 yard dash, which still stands, and the 100 yard dash. The three time Heptagonal Games champion in the 100 and 200-yard dashes also won the conference outdoor sprint title in the 100-yard dash. Following an outstanding career in football and track at Yale, Martin was a seventh round pick by the Raiders in 1971. During his three year professional football career, Martin played defensive back in the National Football League for the New England Patriots and the Kansas City Chiefs. Martin went on to earn a Master's degree from Stanford University and an additional Master's degree in International Economics and Development before joining Yale's coaching staff in 1981.

JOHN MORTON

Offensive Assistant

John Morton is in his first year as offensive coaches assistant. The 28-year-old Morton spent the past season working in the Oakland Raiders player personnel department after having played for the World League's Frankfurt Galaxy during the spring of 1997. He originally signed with the Raiders as an undrafted rookie free agent in 1993 and spent part of the '93 and 1994 seasons on the Silver and Black practice squad. Morton also spent time with the Green Bay Packers in 1993—where his position coach was new Raiders Head Coach Jon Gruden. Morton was in training camp with the Jacksonville Jaguars in 1995 and with the Raiders in 1996. He also played for the Canadian Football League's Toronto franchise in both 1995 and '96. Morton played collegiately at Western Michigan after transferring from Grand Rapids Community College. Despite playing only two seasons at Western Michigan, Morton finished his college career ranked 10th on the school's all-time receiving list with 78 catches. He also placed eighth in receiving yards (1,278) and was an all-conference receiver as a senior. The Pontiac, Michigan native was an all-league receiver at Avondale High in Auburn Hills, Michigan as a senior.

SKIP PEETE

Running Backs

Skip Peete joins the Raiders after serving in the same capacity at UCLA from 1996-97. During his two seasons at UCLA, Peete coached running back Skip Hicks to consecutive 1,000-yard and 20+ touchdown seasons. Prior to serving as an assistant at UCLA, Peete served as wide receivers coach for Rutgers University. From 1993-94, he served in the same capacity with Michigan State. Peete was a member of the University of Pittsburgh coaching staff from 1988-93. While with the Panthers he coached the running backs from 1991-93 and tutored the likes of New York Jets running back Curtis Martin. Peete worked with the wide receivers at Pittsburgh from 1989-90. Peete was a graduate assistant for Pitt in 1988. The Tucson, Arizona native began his collegiate playing career at the University of Arizona before transferring to the University of Kansas. While at Kansas he was an All-Big Eight wide receiver in 1985 and was voted team captain during his senior campaign in 1986. In 1987, Peete was a wide receiver and special teams performer with the New York Jets. Peete's father, Willie, is a longtime college and NFL coach who currently works in pro player personnel for the Chicago Bears. His brother, Rodney, is a quarterback for the Philadelphia Eagles.

Offensive Line

Keith Rowen begins his second season with the Raiders. He previously spent three years as offensive line coach of the Minnesota Vikings. He was a three-year letterman at offensive tackle at Stanford University, where he was an Academic All-America in 1974. Though drafted by the Philadelphia Eagles, Rowen instead chose to begin his coaching career as defensive line assistant at Stanford in 1975. He was offensive line coach at Long Beach State in 1978, then spent four years as offensive line coach at the University of Arizona. Rowen's first pro coaching assignment came in 1983 when he served as offensive coordinator/offensive line coach for the USFL Boston/New Orleans Breakers. In 1984, he was running backs coach with the Cleveland Browns. He then was offensive line/special teams coach of the Indianapolis Colts from 1985-88, before a one-year stint as an assistant coach with the New England Patriots in 1989. Rowen then served four years as offensive line coach with the Atlanta Falcons. Rowen, a San Francisco Lincoln High grad, is the son of Vic Rowen, former head football coach at San Francisco State. The Rowen family includes wife Sheri and three daughters—Mandee, Holly and Kelly.

DAVID SHAW

Quality Control, Offense

David Shaw joins the Raiders coaching staff after serving as offensive assistant on the Philadelphia Eagles coaching staff that also included new Raiders Head Coach Jon Gruden and offensive coordinator Bill Callahan. Prior to joining the Eagles staff, Shaw spent the 1995-96 seasons as an assistant at Western Washington University. In 1995 he handled the linebackers while in '96 he coached the wide receivers, tight ends and punt returners. Shaw spent the early portion of the 1997 season at Idaho State as wide receivers coach before joining the Eagles prior to the start of the season. During the summer of 1995, Shaw was a coaching intern with the St. Louis Rams and served in the same capacity during the summer of 1996 with the Eagles. The San Diego native was a three-sport star at James Logan High School in Union City, California. He was a four-year letterman as a wide receiver for Stanford. While at Stanford, Shaw became one of only three men in school history to ever letter in three varsity sports—football (1990-95), basketball (1993-94) and track (1992-93). Shaw's father, Willie, is the defensive coordinator for the Raiders.

GARY STEVENS

Quarterbacks

Gary Stevens joins the Raiders after spending the past nine seasons as offensive coordinator for the Miami Dolphins. While at Miami, the team ranked eighth or better in total offense in the NFL six times and, in 1994, led the NFL. Stevens first joined the Dolphins in 1989 as an assistant after spending nine years as an assistant at the University of Miami. From 1984-88, Stevens was offensive coordinator, the last five seasons under Jimmy Johnson, for Miami's explosive offense. During his tenure at Miami, the Hurricanes won two National Championships. His Miami offenses averaged over 30 points a game and over 400 yards per game during his six seasons running the offense while guiding the likes of Jim Kelly, Bernie Kosar, Vinny Testaverde and Steve Walsh. Prior to joining Miami as wide receivers coach in 1980, Stevens was an assistant at West Virginia from 1976-79. Stevens spent one season at Kent State in 1975 and began his collegiate coaching career at Louisville and worked there from 1971-74. LoCasale is an original American Football League executive, having helped form the Los Angeles Chargers when the American Football League—professional football's most successful new league—started in 1960. After seven years with the Chargers in Los Angeles and San Diego, including five Division Championships and one American Football League Championship, LoCasale became the first employee hired when Pro Football Hall of Fame member Paul Brown was awarded the Cincinnati Bengals expansion franchise. With the new Cincinnati team, LoCasale built the player personnel system that enabled the Bengals to become the first National Football League expansion team ever to win a division championship in just its third season of play. During his 45 years in football—30 with the Raiders—LoCasale served as administrative assistant to the head football coach at the University of Southern California before joining the Chargers. He coached at the University of Pennsylvania—his alma mater—and at the U.S. Naval Training Center at Bainbridge, Maryland while on active duty in the Navy, in addition to coaching at the scholastic level in Philadelphia. LoCasale has done extensive work in both radio and television broadcasting since the early Sixties and is the author of a number of books, periodicals and films. LoCasale is a founding member of the NFL Working Executives Group, serves on the Board of Directors of both National Football League Properties and NFL Films and is a representative of the Raiders on the NFL Executive Committee and the NFL Management Council. LoCasale was awarded an honorary doctorate degree by Pepperdine University in 1995 for his fundraising activities for the Boy Scouts of America. The LoCasale family includes wife Jananne and sons Nicholas, 19, and Alexander, 15.

RAIDERS MERCHANDISE CATALOG

THE RAIDER IMAGE, the official Raider merchandise catalog, is back on the Raider scene for 1998. Off the field, one of the challenges facing the Raider organization has been responding to the thousands of requests for high-quality authentic merchandise from loyal Raider fans throughout the world.

In response, the Raiders have selected a collection of products based on their excellence in quality and design. The Raiders are once again among the leading NFL teams in merchandise sales. Raider items and apparel sales represent a large share of the multi-billion-dollar NFL merchandise market.

Bugel, 56, becomes the 11th head coach in the organization's 37 years of professional football competition. Bugel is a veteran of over 30 years of coaching, including 21 in the NFL and the last two with the Silver and Black as the team's assistant head coach/offense. The native of football-rich Western Pennsylvania was head coach for the Phoenix Cardinals from 1990-93, accumulating a 20-44 record, including a 7-9 record in his final season while playing in the tough NFC Eastern Division. February 2—Three Raiders play in Pro Bowl in Honolulu, wide receiver Tim Brown, cornerback Terry McDaniel and defensive tackle Chester McGlockton. March 31—The Raiders moved up eight spots in the first round of the NFL Draft, acquiring the second overall selection in a trade with the New Orleans Saints. April 19—Raiders select USC defensive lineman Darrell Russell in the first round of the 1997 NFL Draft. May 8—The Silver and Black and Susquehanna Radio Corp. announce that Raider games will be carried on "The Ticket," 1050 AM, the Bay Area's newest all-sports radio station. "The Oakland Raiders are excited about participating in the new radio venture which will offer to Raider fans a dynamic perspective of pro football's winningest team," said Raiders Chief Executive Amy Trask. "We look forward to helping build a championship radio station—one that, like the Raiders, is a powerful force with a 'Commitment to Excellence.'" July 19—Raiders open second year of training camp based in Napa, California. July 26—Former Raider cornerback Mike Haynes inducted into Pro Football Hall of Fame in ceremony in Canton, Ohio. August 31—Silver and Black open their 38th league season of pro football and 25th year as Oakland Raiders with inaugural league contest versus the Tennessee Oilers in Memphis. September 8—Raiders open 1997 home league schedule on Monday Night against Kansas City Chiefs in the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum. December 21—Tim Brown passed Pro Football Hall of Famer Fred Biletnikoff for the top spot on the Raiders all-time receiving list after catching a 20-yard pass from Jeff George in the first quarter of Raiders-Jacksonville contest. Biletnikoff, the Raiders receivers coach, had 589 career catches. Brown also set a Raiders record for receptions in a single game against Jacksonville with 14, breaking his own record of 12 on November 19, 1995 against Dallas.

January 22—Jon Gruden—a veteran of seven years of NFL coaching experience and six at the college level—was named as head coach of the Oakland Raiders. Gruden spent the previous three seasons as offensive coordinator for the Philadelphia Eagles, after serving as receivers coach for the Green Bay Packers. Gruden, 34, becomes the youngest head coach presently employed in the NFL and the third-youngest in the history of the Silver and Black. Raiders owner Al Davis was 33 when he was named head coach and general manager in 1963 while John Madden was 32 when he was promoted to head coach in 1969. February 1—Three Raiders play in Pro Bowl in Honolulu, wide receiver Tim Brown, defensive tackle Chester McGlockton and guard Steve Wisniewski. April 19—Raiders select Michigan defensive back Charles Woodson with the fourth overall pick in the 1998 draft. Woodson is the first primarily defensive player to ever win the Heisman. The Raiders made a draft day trade to acquire Tampa Bay's first round pick and select Florida tackle Mo Collins. July 21—Raiders open training camp in Napa, California. August 8—Raiders open 1998 preseason in Dallas versus Cowboys. September 6—Raiders open league season on the road with Sunday night, nationally televised (ESPN) contest in Kansas City against Chiefs. December 26—Raiders play regular season finale versus their league season opening opponent, Kansas City, this time at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum.

RAIDERS RADIO NETWORK

For the second straight year, the Ticket 1050 AM, the Bay Area's home for cutting edge sports talk, will serve as the flagship station of the Oakland Raiders Radio Network. The Ticket 1050 will broadcast all Raiders games live, starting with the preseason opener on August 8 in Dallas against the Cowboys. The 50,000-watt station serves as the anchor of a radio network covering more than 15 stations in seven states, including California, Alaska, Arizona, Nevada, New Mexico, Oregon and Washington.

"We are very proud to be associated with one of pro football's legendary franchises," said Tony Salvadore, Vice President of Susquehanna Radio and general manager of KNBR-68 and The Ticket 1050. "The Ticket 1050 and the Oakland Raiders are perfect partners."

On game days The Ticket will blanket the Bay Area football fans with extensive coverage of the Raiders, starting with a two hour pre-game show, the game broadcast, and a one hour post-game show.

Play-by-play announcer Greg Papa, who begins his second year of broadcasting Silver and Black football, also serves as the voice of the San Antonio Spurs and the Oakland A's. Papa got his start in broadcasting at the age of 21 when, in 1984, the Indiana Pacers hired him as a backup announcer. The following year Papa was named as the Pacers top announcer where he remained for another season before joining the Golden State Warriors in 1986 as their play-by-play announcer.

Papa will be teamed in the booth this year with former Raiders quarterback and head coach, Tom Flores. Flores is one of only two people in NFL history to have won a Super Bowl ring as a player, assistant coach and head coach. He earned his rings as a reserve quarterback with the Kansas City Chiefs in Super Bowl IV, as an assistant with the Raiders in Super Bowl XI, and as head coach of the Silver and Black in Super Bowls XV and XVIII.

Rod Brooks, part of the Ticket's "Ebony and Ivory" morning show, who begins his first year broadcasting Raiders football, will serve as the sideline reporter.

The Ticket's two hour pregame show and one hour postgame show will be anchored by veteran KNBR morning sportscaster, Kevin "The Rat" Radich. He'll be joined by former Raiders quarterback, David Humm. Humm served two tours of duty with the Raiders from 1975-79, then from 1983-84, and was a member of two Raider teams that won Super Bowls XI and XV.

Other members of the pre-and post-game team include the other half of the "Ebony and Ivory" morning show, Dan Sileo, and sports analyst Artie Gigantino. Sileo played college football at the University of Miami and played under Jimmy Johnson with the Dallas Cowboys. Gigantino is a former assistant coach at the University of California at Berkeley, at USC and with the L.A. Rams.

The Ticket's afternoon duo, "Ron and Don," will provide special pregame tailgate reports from the Coliseum parking lot for each Oakland Raiders home game. Lee Hammer, program director of The Ticket 1050, will serve as the executive producer of the Raiders Broadcasts.

In addition to serving as the home of the Oakland Raiders, the Ticket 1050 is also the flagship station of Stanford University football and basketball, and the San Jose Sabercats of the Arena Football League.

The Ticket 1050 also carries the Super Bowl, NFC and AFC Championships, Monday and Sunday Night Football, the NBA and NHL Playoffs, The Major League Baseball Playoffs and World Series, the All-Star Game, the Indy 500, and Championship Boxing.

PRESS BOX FAX: 510-382-1520

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS: Credential requests will be honored only for working media on specific assignment for a recognized news or sports organization. Credentials will not be issued to freelance writers or photographers unless requested by a recognized news or sports organization. All credential requests must be submitted in writing on company letterhead to Oakland Raiders MEDIA CREDENTIALS, 1220 Harbor Bay Parkway, Alameda CA 94502 or by fax to (510) 864-5160. Requests must be received at least one week prior to a home game.

PARKING: Media parking is limited. Every effort will be made to accommodate requests for parking passes, but parking cannot be provided for all credentialed media. The appropriate parking pass will be required for access to stadium parking. TV trucks which provide satellite, uplink or microwave functions will need to make prior arrangements with Steve MacFadyen at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum at 510-615-4800 ext. 145 to secure locations.

MEDIA ENTRANCE, PRESS WILL-CALL: The media entrance, as well as Press Will-Call, at the stadium is located at the North Pass Gate at the bottom of "F" parking lot.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Sideline access for NFL games is limited to photographers and videographers on assignment for a recognized news or sports organization. No one except network television personnel and authorized game personnel will be admitted to the field without a camera. All field photographers must remain outside the bench areas and outside the yellow border surrounding the playing field. Photographers check-in is the Media Entrance/ Press Will-Call.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS, LOCKER ROOM ACCESS: Members of the media needing to conduct postgame interviews will be given access to the Raiders interview room after each game, as well as the home and visiting locker rooms. Raiders head coach Jon Gruden conducts his postgame news conference in a room adjacent to the Raiders locker room. Selected players will also be brought into the interview room following the game. The opponents head coach will be available outside the visitors locker room.

PRESS BOX, SERVICES: The press box and all broadcast positions are located on the loge level. Access is by the press elevator only. Programs, lineups, depth charts, statistics and game notes are provided at the end of each quarter. Complete team and individual statistics, lineups and substitutions, scoring summary, coaches and players comments and quarter summaries are available after the game. If postgame faxing of final stats or play-by-play is need, contact a member of the Raiders P.R. staff. There is a nominal charge for faxing postgame stats, as agreed upon by the Pro Football Writers Association.

PRESS LOUNGE: The press lounge is located behind Section 117 (second floor from the press elevator). It opens two hours prior to kickoff for accredited media members and football personnel. The press lounge remains open during games and may be used for overflow.

FAX ON DEMAND: The Raiders weekly release is available 24-hours a day through the fax on demand fax retrieval system. Simply call (770) 399-3066 from your fax machine handset. Enter the NFL pass code (7575) followed by the pound key (#). The automated message will then ask for you to enter your request number (four digit extensions listed below), followed by the pound key (#).

RAIDERS.COM

RAIDERS WEBSITE: The Raiders were one of the first professional sports teams to launch an official web site when the team went online in 1995. Since then, the site has evolved into one of the top sites devoted to a pro organization.

Located at <http://www.raiders.com>, the site will continue to provide digital photos, official press releases, transactions, live on-line interviews with current, former Raiders players and team personnel along with player features and updates on activity by the Raiders in the community. In addition, features and photos of the draft, minicamps, training camp and the season will be covered on raiders.com. In 1998, the official web site of the Oakland Raiders—www.raiders.com—will include even more cutting edge technology combined with information, offering visitors an in-depth, state-of-the-art look at pro sports' winningest team.

RAIDERS TRAIN IN NAPA

The Oakland Raiders are now in their third year of summer training in Napa, California. The Raiders are housed at the Napa Valley Marriott Hotel and Conference Center with practice sessions held at the adjacent Redwood Middle School.

There are two 100-yard practice fields with an additional 50-yard field at the facility. The Raiders summer training facility also consists of a 10,000 square foot field house that includes locker rooms, showers, training and equipment quarters. There's an additional 3,000 square foot outdoor weight training area.

The facilities serve the Raiders during the summer training camp period and are available for Napa youth activities and other community functions during the year.
